National Restaurant Association Public Affairs Conference

April 14–16, 2010 | Washington, DC | Grand Hyatt Hotel

Pundit John Mercurio to speak at Public Affairs Conference

Get an inside look at political events and leaders from pundit John Mercurio. The executive editor of The Hotline, a daily online political roundup, is headlining the National Restaurant Association's 2010 Public Affairs Conference. Mercurio is one of Washington's leading experts on campaigns and elections. He has covered politics for 18 years.

Set for April 14 to 16 in Washington, D.C., the Public Affairs Conference brings together hundreds of restaurateurs to meet elected officials and help shape pro-restaurant policy. Secure your spot today for this invaluable opportunity to let Congress know what the restaurant industry does for this country. The deadline to receive the early-bird registration discount for the conference and reserve a room in our hotel block is March 12.
